

Please do not cancel the NJ Do Not Call program. It is very successful and useful. It is very disturbing to have telemarketers call you (especially during dinner time), so the Do Not Call program prevents that from happening. If you cancel the program, NJ will take action.